At LifePath, we listen first, and then help each person find the best options for their unique needs. We help elders and persons with disabilities maintain independence and quality of life in their own homes and communities. We help caregivers to find relief and help loved ones to choose the right path.

For over 40 years, we've been offering options for independence. We welcome all people regardless of race, physical appearance or ability, sex, age, nationality or ancestry, class, religious or political beliefs, marital status, sexual orientation, or gender identity.

LifePath, a private, nonprofit corporation, serves Franklin County plus Athol, Petersham, Phillipston, and Royalston. Some of LifePath programs extend into Berkshire, Hampden, Hampshire and Worcester counties.

LifePath, Inc., is an Area Agency on Aging and Aging Services Access Point funded in part by the federal Older Americans Act, Executive Office of Elder Affairs, Massachusetts Council on Aging, MassHealth Office of Long-Term Care, United Way of Franklin County, and other sources both public and private. LifePath is operated by a local volunteer board of directors, a majority of whom are, by law, elders. As an AA/EOE employer, LifePath does not discriminate in program admissions, access, services, or employment practices.

What is Congregate Housing?

Congregate housing offers a shared living arrangement to elders and persons with disabilities. Residents have a private room, as well as access to common areas, including a kitchen, living room, dining room, and showers. This design provides residents with both privacy and the opportunity for companionship.

What is Supportive Housing?

Supportive housing provides flexible supportive services to residents who reside in housing complexes for elders and persons with disabilities. LifePath works in collaboration with housing authorities to assist residents and ensure they can live safely and independently in their own apartments.

“I do like being in here. It’s quiet and peaceful. If you need a kind of assistance that you don’t understand, they’ll come to your apartment and help you figure it out.”

Who is eligible for housing?

Individuals who:

- Are age 60 or older, or younger people with disabilities
- Meet income guidelines of the local housing authority

What services are available?

A LifePath housing coordinator provides assistance with daily activities. Services available through LifePath or other partner organizations include:

- Case management
- Homemaking services such as light housekeeping, laundry, meal preparation, shopping
- Transportation
- Personal care
- Nursing visits
- Community meals
- Coordination with other service providers

Congregate Housing Options

- The Morgan-Allen House has 19 units and is located at 491 Main Street in downtown Greenfield.
- The Winslow Wentworth House has 17 units and is located at 60 J Street in downtown Turners Falls.
